Blackbox (2013)

Archival box containing a journal, photographs, and audio recordings. Blackbox is a collaborative long-distance conversation amongst Karen Barad, Eben Kirksey, Karin Bolender, and Craig Campbell. Blackbox takes the Multispecies Intra-actions roundtable held at the AudibleObservatories exhibition in SOMArts (San Francisco) as a starting point for an extended conversation. The conversation is structured around the old-timey constraint of postal system. Participants take turns adding to and modifying an archival box containing a journal, photographs, and audio recordings before sending it off to the next participant.
